EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

The Jay Cooke Estate.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.—A meeting of the creditors of Jay Cooke was held to-day. At least one thousand persons were present. The best of feeling prevailed. Statements were made by the Receiver, by several of the firm, and the Register read various documents and reports, after which a resolution to place the settlement of the estate in the hands of a trustee and a committee of the creditors, under the 43d section of the Bankrupt act, was adopted without objection. C. M. Lewis, present Receiver of the estate, was elected trustee, and the business of electing a committee was postponed till to-morrow.

Miscellaneous News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The House Military Committee will resume consideration of the case of Gen. Howard to-morrow.

Vice President Wilson's health is much improved. He has abandoned his trip to Florida for the present, but will go to Massachusetts.

The National Woman Suffrage Convention met here to-day, Susan B. Anthony presiding. Letters from Gen. Butler and Gerrit Smith, expressing sympathy, were read, and the usual speeches made and resolutions adopted.

The Texas Election Difficulty.

AUSTIN, Jan. 17.—The Chairman of a committee appointed by the House of Representatives of the fourteenth legislature, went to Gov. Davis to-day and presented the resolutions of the House requesting the Governor to order the Secretary of State to deliver to the committee the returns of the late election, the Secretary having refused to deliver them to the committee. The Governor informed the committee that he did not consider they had a right to the returns, but if the Chairman would go to the Secretary of State's office and take them he would not be resisted. He accordingly went with an officer, the Secretary showed him where the returns were and he took them away, the Secretary filing a written protest against the act. It is now supposed the inauguration of State officers will take place this evening, if canvassing the vote does not take too long. It is thought Gov. Davis will yield all without trouble.

Ready to Pay.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Commodore Vanderbilt notified the Union Trust Company to-day that he was prepared to take up notes given by the Lake Shore in October, 1873. These notes amount to $1,500,000, and were a subject of general remark during the panic.

Printers on a Strike.

OMAHA, Jan. 15.—All the printers here are on a strike, on account of a reduction of wages from forty-five to forty cents per thousand ems

Justifiable Homicide.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 15.—The Coroner's Jury, in the case of Colonel Stillwell, shot yesterday at Anderson, by Corwin, rendered a verdict of justifiable homicide.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—James W. Freeman, of Jersey City, alleges the shooting accidentally of his sister, who, the prisoner says, took deliberate aim at his mother as he turned from the room, and she fell dead on the threshold.

Fire in Brooklyn.

The Empire stores, Front street, Brooklyn, filled with various kinds of merchandise, were partially destroyed by fire this afternoon. Loss, $100,000.

Prohibition.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 15.—The Prohibitory State Convention nominated a ticket headed by H. D. Smith, and adopted resolutions condemning the hypocrisy of both political parties, and declaring the license law a fraud.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Chief Justiceship.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Various names continue to be mentioned in connection with the Chief Justiceship. From certain indications it is thought the nomination may come from New York, in the person of Judge Woodruff, at least, intimation to that effect is made in Congressional quarters. Several days may elapse before a nomination will be sent to the Senate.

Has He Written Any Letter?

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—At a late hour to-night the opinion prevails among a large number of Congressmen that Senator Conkling may accept the Chief Justiceship. He has left Washington for New York.

A New Reservation for Colville Indians.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—The Secretary of the Interior has sent to the House a draft of a bill providing for the establishment of a reservation for the Indians of the Colville Agency in Washington Territory, and for the Cour d'Alene Indians of Idaho.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—A precedent for permitting grain bags to be returned to the United States free of duty, as proposed by Sargent's resolution, is found in similar action by the last Congress with reference to petroleum barrels. Owing to the condition of national finances it will, however, be difficult to procure the remission of this or any other tax at present.

Page will offer to-morrow a resolution instructing the Foreign Relations Committee to report a concurrent resolution advising the President to open negotiations for the modification of the treaty with China so as to check or altogether prevent Chinese immigration to this country. The resolution, when offered, will doubtless be referred to the committee.

McCreery's bill for the regulation of railroads is now ready for report from the House Committee on Roads and Canals. It is expected to be one of the themes of principal discussion, but probably only so much of it will pass this year as provides for Commissioners to procure railroad statistics which shall form a basis for future legislation. The bill will be strongly backed by legal talent and as strongly fought by the railroad money power.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 17.—In the Senate, Morton delivered a speech in reply to that of Schurz yesterday, and argued against the contraction of the currency or abolition of the national banking system, declaring there was not currency enough in the country, and less now in proportion to the wealth and business of the country than there was five years ago, and cited Austria, Russia, Italy and Germany as the countries of Europe which made the greatest progress during the last ten years, in all of which currency ranged from 5 to 25 per cent. below par. He denied that the currency system had anything to do with the panic, and insisted against any patent plan for specie resumption.

Howe introduced a bill on the subject which he explained provided for gradual resumption of specie payment without increasing or decreasing the volume of currency.

Sherman gave notice that he would speak to-morrow, and the Senate adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—The J. B. Wright Indian claim forgery case came up in Court. Motion by defense to quash indictment overruled. Six of the cases were set down for Monday.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From Madrid.

MADRID, Jan. 17.—The authority of the Government is fully restored in Barcelona.

The iron-clad Numancia has been delivered to a Spanish frigate.

The insurgent chiefs Contreras, Ferrez and Galnez have been sent to the capital of Algeria, and other Cartagenian refugees have been placed in forts and barracks of Oran and Mercel Miber.

The Times' correspondent at Cartagena reports a tumult among the people, who are convinced of the treachery of their leaders in surrendering the city. It is understood that the French Government will deliver to Spain, under extradition, those of the Cartagenian refugees, now in Algeria, who are accused of piracy and other civil crimes.

MADRID, Jan. 16.—The Spanish Government has thanked France for her conduct in the case of the iron-clad Numancia.

Vote of Confidence in Castelar.

MADRID, Jan. 15.—At a meeting of deputies constituting a majority in the late Cortes, a vote of confidence in Castelar was adopted, and he was requested to prepare a manifesto to the nation.

From Rome.

ROME, Jan. 15.—Contradiction is given to the report that Cardinal Antonelli is seriously ill.

Indemnity for Loss of Friends and Property to be Sought by the Ville du Havre Sufferers.

LONDON, Jan. 15—6 A. M.—Henry Belknap, a passenger on the steamer Ville du Havre, writes the Times that the French Transatlantic S. S. Co., relying upon the exculpation of their officers by a French court, refuse to indemnify parties for the loss of friends and property by the disaster, and sufferers propose to seek redress in New York courts.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—A large fire occurred in Portsmouth dock yard yesterday. Thousand of pounds' worth of stores, which had accumulated for the Ashantee expedition, were destroyed

Significant Language.

BERLIN, Jan 16.—The North German Gazette to-day says if the policy of France is made subservient to the temporal aims of the Papacy, the peace of Europe will be compromised.

The Berlin Style.

There was an exciting scene in the Landtag to-day. Herr M. A. Lieckfart, Ultramontane Deputy, quoted a passage from a recent work by General La Marmora, alleging that Bismarck in '66 discussed the cession to France of a portion of Rhenish territory. Bismarck arose and pronounced the statement an audacious, malicious falsehood.

WEST INDIES.

Spanish Defeat in the Ever-Faithful Isle.

HAVANA, Jan. 15.—Spanish accounts state that Colonel Esperda, with 600 men, had an engagement with insurgents near Melques, that he fought for six or seven hours and at the close Col. Esperda retreated before the superior numbers with a loss of four officers and fifteen privates killed and fourteen officers and fifty privates wounded. The insurgent loss is not known.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 17.—Eastern lines are down.

The ship Confidence, from Havre for Portland, Oregon, was thrown on her beam ends, threw out 75 tons of cargo, and put into Montevideo with pumps choked and listed heavily.

It is stated that there is a rupture amongst the Crescents relative to the disposition of the $10,000 fund raised for recent election purposes. It is also stated that the Rev. Mr. Hemphill contributed $3,000 to the fund.

There was another strong gale and heavy fall of rain here last night. To-day is cloudy and threatening more rain.

The Coroner's inquest in the case of Lulu Torrence will be resumed this afternoon. Thus far the testimony clearly establishes the theory of suicide.

Chief Cockrill is still confined to his house by severe illness.

FARMING ITEMS.

There appears to be a ready market at the Dalles for good beef cattle. Mr. Robert Mays has sold 115 head, for $30 per head. Mr. Benj. Snipes, we are told, sold a lot of 7-year olds at $30 per head.

The Astorian says: Capt. Thomas, of the bark Powhattan, takes to England with him five apples, from the orchard of Mr. Kindred, Tanzy Point, weighing four and a half pounds. Three of them weighed just one pound each.

At the annual election of the Linn County Agricultural Association, the following persons were elected as Directors for the year 1874. Jason Wheeler, Jesse Parrish, S. Montgomery, D. Froman, and A. B. Morris. The Board then selected its officers as follows: M. Luper, President; Jesse Parrish, Vice President; J. Z. Crouse, Chief Marshal; D. Froman, Treasurer; W. W. Parrish, Secretary. The Board have not, as yet, decided on holding a fair the present year.

R. C. Geer informs the Statesman that farmers in the hills are plowing this weather. The prairie land is not so soon ready for the plow as the hills, but the late high wind dried the ground very rapidly. People living east of Salem say they never knew such a high wind in that vicinity before, and Mr. Geer reports finding large trees prostrate in the road in the woods between Salem and Howell Prairie. The fall wheat looks well and is now commencing to grow finely.

A friend writes to the Farmer from Lewisville, Polk county, that at a late meeting of Mono Grange the 4th degree was conferred on 13 candidates. They had a feast and a good time generally. The Grange now numbers thirty-three members, among them some of the most thrifty farmers in the country. The following are the officers for the ensuing year. J. M. Bewley, M.; E. T. Miller, O.; M. F. Swick, S.; G. W. Harvey, A. S.; J. D. Smith, C.; B. F. Smith, T.; H. C. M'Timmonds, Sec.; R. Montgomery, G.; Mrs. E. J. Scrafford, Ceres; Mrs. N. G. Brown, Pomona; Mrs. L. E. M'Timmonds, Flora; Mrs. L. P. Smith, L. A. S.

GRANGES ORGANIZED.

Jacob Johnson, Esq., Deputy for the county of Multnomah, organized a Grange in Powell's Valley on the 9th of January, with 23 charter members. Master, T. K. Williams; Secretary, S. B. Withington.

On the 7th Butte Creek Grange was organized near Butte Creek postoffice, with thirty charter members. The following are the officers elect for the ensuing year: Enoch Skirvin, M.; M. J. White, O.; J. R. White, L.; Daniel Albright, S.; Jacob Kiser, A. S.; Elijah Weddle, C.; E. M. Hartman, Sec.; Robert Thompson, T.; R. Willis, G.; Mrs. E. Skirvin, L. A. S.; Miss Emma Drake, C.; Mrs. S. A. Kiser, P.; Mrs. Mary White, F.

On the 8th, in Upper Molalla, Clackamas county, Upper Molalla Grange was organized, with 27 charter members. The following are the officers elect for the ensuing year: James Muse, M.; Levi Robbins, O.; W. H. Vaughan, L.; Newton Leveridge, S.; A. Engle, A. S.; George W. Jackson, C.; Samuel Engle, Secretary; R. V. Officer, T.; Charles Stewart, G.; Mrs. N. H. Engle, L. A. S.; Miss Virginia Vaughan, P.; Mrs. Susan Vaughan, C.; Mrs. Lucinda Hamilton, F.

Needy Grange, Clackamas county, was organized January 6, 1874, by Edward Forbes, Deputy, with twenty-eight charter members. The following is a list of officers elect for the ensuing year: John Ring, M.; Wm. McCown, O.; J. R. Sparrh, L.; C. W. Noblett, S.; J. L. Struthers, A. S.; Henry Samson, C.; Jacob Roop, T.; W. W. H. Samson, Sec.; Joseph Johnson, G.; Miss Mary C. Samson, L. A. S.; Mrs. Sarah J. McCown, C.; Miss J. C. Struthers, P.; Miss Mary A. Boynton, F.

THE OHIO RAILROAD STRIKE.

A DEVILISH REVENGE.—ATTEMPT TO THROW CARS OFF THE TRACK AT COLUMBIA.

The train which usually leaves Columbus for Cincinnati before noon was many hours late in so doing on Saturday. Mr. J. H. Setchell, master mechanic of the Little Miami, controlled the engine, and one of the most experienced conductors, Mr. Holloway, was in charge of the train. Everything proceeded well until the train approached Columbia—a station one mile east of Pendleton—when Mr. Setchell felt the engine leave the main track and run upon a switch that is there. This side track runs alongside the main one for some distance, when it ends abruptly. Opposite the end of this "siding" is a large tree and frame house, and upon the switch Saturday night were ten cars, the one nearest the approaching train being the only one loaded. When Mr. Setchell became aware of his position he reversed his engine, which was going at the rate of twenty miles an hour, put on the air brakes, and, in company with the fireman, jumped. Mr. Setchell was struck upon the head, but not more seriously wounded than to confine him to his house for a day or two. The train dashed in the standing cars and started them into motion, when they struck against the tree, and the forward car protruded half way into the house. The house was inhabited by a woman and her child, but fortunately they were in another part of it, having left the portion that was wrecked a few minutes previous. No one but Mr. Setchell was injured. A locomotive was sent up from the Pendleton yard, and as soon as the cars were right the train was brought down to the city, arriving about two yesterday morning. The carefulness with which the switch was misplaced, and other evidences of a desire to do mischief, prove premeditation on the part of the miscreants.

ANOTHER ATTEMPT.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Dec. 28.

A train from Chicago passed through here yesterday at a high rate of speed making no stop, under the apprehension that if it stopped it would not be permitted to go on. An engineer, one of the strikers, turned a switch, which, if he had not been instantly forced by a policeman to close, it would have sent the train plunging into a block of buildings near the road. At an early hour General Macauley, in command of soldiers, came in on foot from Indianapolis the train having been thrown from the track a few miles out by a misplaced switch. Judge Chase took the matter in hand yesterday, when he found the strikers were violating the law, and caused the arrest of several, and warrants are out for others.

The Good Templars of Dallas have elected the following named persons to attend the State Temperance Union and State Temperance Alliance to be held in Salem: Wm. McD. Lewis, A. R. Lyle, G. W. Cary, Miss Jennie McNeal and Joanna Lysle.

BRUTAL ASSAULT ON AN EDITOR.

JERSEY CITY, Jan. 12.—About 8 o'clock this morning Z. K. Pangborne, editor of the Evening Journal of this city, left his house in Mercer street for the purpose of going to his office. While waiting for a car on the corner of Grove street, he was accosted by J. R. Daly, a well-known Communist of this city. After a warm discussion on the labor question, Pangborne stepped towards the car, when Daly drew a thick oak club from under his coat and struck him a terrible blow on the back of his head, felling him to the ground. Pangborne attempted to resist, when he was again struck and felled to the ground. Robert Bumpstead, President of the Board of Aldermen, witnessed the assault, and hastened to the assistance of the journalist. He was met by Daly, who gave him a severe blow over the face and head, which stunned him. Daly was then seized by George Duncan, a citizen, who attempted to wrest the weapon from the man, when Daly dealt him a terrible blow on the base of the skull, laying open the skull in two places. Capt. McHarney soon arrived at the scene of the fray, and grappled with Daly, and with the assistance of another officer, took him to the station-house. Alderman Bumpstead was the only one able to speak. He preferred a charge of felonious assault with intent to kill against Daly, who was locked up. Pangborne was conveyed home all covered with blood. It is feared that Duncan, who is an old man, will not recover, as he has been suffering from paralysis of the brain for some years past. The affair has created great excitement.

THE KELSEY CASE—SHALL THE REWARD BE PAID?

The town of Huntington offered a reward of $1,000 to any party or parties who should find the remains of the murdered Kelsey. Subsequently a portion of a human body was found by John Franklin and William Ludlow, and the coroner's jury determined that the remains were those of Kelsey. The finders claimed half of the reward, as only half of the body had been found.

Yesterday an application was made on behalf of the Sammis brothers for an injunction to prevent the payment of the reward, on the grounds that the town-meeting had no authority in itself to offer the reward; that the remains found were not parts of Kelsey's body; that the payment would be an interference with the course of justice, in that it was, as it were, a forejudgment of a point to be tried in the indictment against two parties charged with the murder.

It was conceded by the other side that the action of the town was illegal. The Supervisor declines also to pay the money.

The Judge remarked that the Court could not restrain a man from doing what he had no intention of doing.

The applicants, however, insisted upon an injunction. Counsel claimed that this affair obstructed justice by instilling prejudices in the minds of the residents of the venue where the case will be tried.

Judge Pratt reserved his decision.—N. Y. Herald, Dec. 23d.

SCHLIERMANN'S TROJAN DISCOVERIES.—The new publications of Brockhaus (Leipsic) embrace some exceedingly interesting and valuable scientific works, first of all "Trojan Antiquities," by Dr. Schliermann, renowned for his excavations on the site of ancient Troy. These excavations have been carried on by the enthusiastic antiquarian (and his wife) from October, 1871, to July of the present year, and settle, as he thinks, the question as to the exact site of ancient Troy. The atlas accompanying the work will consist of 217 photographic tables, a number of views and plans, and pictures of some 4,000 objects discovered—the richest material ever brought into a single work—say the publishers. The objects discovered by Dr. Schliermann are at present in Athens. The text of the work will, judging from the essays that have appeared from time to time in the Augsburg Allgemeine Zeitung and in the Herald, from his pen, be full of romantic interest. The German archæologist, a man of wealth and enthusiastic in his labors, offered some years ago as a prize his own person in marriage to any young lady who could repeat the "Iliad" by heart. The prize was won by a modest, enthusiastic, but not rich young lady of Athens, who has ever since been the constant help and companion of her husband.—Berlin Cor. N. Y. Herald.

BEECHER STRUGGLING WITH A CONSCIENTIOUS SCRUPLE.—Among the announcements sent to Plymouth pulpit yesterday was one relating to a dramatic performance, and this is the way Mr. Beecher got over it: After reading the usual routine notices of church services, he said, holding a circular letter in his hand, "I have an announcement here that places me somewhat in a difficulty. I cannot say I do not know what to do, for I do. It is an announcement that the 'Amarinth' will give a dramatic entertainment in the Brooklyn Academy of Music, on Saturday evening next, and that the proceeds of the entertainment will be given to the poor of Brooklyn. Now, I want the poor of Brooklyn to get as much as they can, for they want it; but I don't want to give countenance to dramatic entertainments, and therefore I will not read this circular." Mr. Beecher put the paper on one side and proceeded to read a request for plum cake from the Mission children, but before he could do this, he had to wait until the noise of the laughter caused by his dramatic announcement and his clever way of dodging it had died away.—N. Y. Herald, Dec. 22d.

A DISTRESSING CASE.—The Vallejo Chronicle of January 10th relates these facts:

The bark Brontes is discharging a cargo of lumber at South Vallejo. As has been already noticed, this vessel in coming down the coast picked up a trunk marked "E. W. Sprague," supposed to have come from the schooner Elida, bound for San Francisco from the north. As the Elida is considerably overdue it is feared that she has gone to the bottom. The Rev. W. S. Urmy has just received a letter from the pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in San Jose requesting him to procure further information, if any may be obtained, from the Captain of the Brontes, for the benefit of Mrs. Sprague, who resides in that city. This lady's husband, with a son and one or two other relatives, was on board the Elida, and the torments of anxiety and suspense suffered by the unfortunate woman cannot well be imagined. It is possible that the trunk was washed overboard, and that the schooner with her passengers and crew is all right; but her long delay in arriving gives grounds for the most serious fears.

THE HORACE GREELEY ALBUM.—The committee of the Common Council appointed to make the necessary arrangements for the presentation to the family of the late Horace Greeley of the Album prepared by the Common Council met yesterday, in the Aldermanic Chamber, Alderman McCafferty in the chair. In consequence of the absence from the city of Mr. Whitelaw Reid, the committee adjourned till Wednesday next at 12 o'clock, without transacting any business, except that of passing a resolution asking the Mayor to make the presentation to the family.—N. Y. Herald, Dec. 21st.

THAT SQUABBLE.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald writes: "Those families of Senators, Secretaries and bureau chiefs which furnish the satellites revolving about the noted foreigners, are entertaining liberally, and Mme. Fish has her receptions, where only la creme de la creme can come. It is said that Mrs. Williams, wife of the newly nominated but still unconfirmed Chief Justice, is not asked to the receptions of Mme Fish, and does not attend them. The official petticoat government is not partial to Mme. Chief Justice—why, I do not attempt to say."

The eminent physicians, Sir James Paget and Sir William Gull, daily visit Baron Mayer de Rothschild who is seriously ill at his country seat, and receive one hundred guineas ($525) each for every visit.

HE HAD A GOOD TIME.

HOW FRANCIS GEORGE, WHO WAS NOT THE SON OF A LORD, PLAYED IT UPON GOOD SOCIETY.

We gave our readers, on Saturday afternoon, the main facts connected with the career and arrest of Francis George Godolphin Massey, who played such a conspicuous role at Cape May, last summer. There are some other particulars which we were then prevented from stating, for want of time. Massey, when there was no doubt left that he was arrested, became communicative and conversed freely with our reporter, as follows:

"Frank, in the twelvemonth you were in the United States, how much money do you imagine you obtained by misrepresentation?"

"I should think no less than $20,000, at least $15,000 of which I secured while I was at Cape May."

"Did you live well at the latter place?"

"Report," said he, looking up, "speaks sufficiently on that point. I stopped at Congress Hall, and lived as best I knew how, with the means at my disposal."

"And the horses?"

"Fine as ever man drove behind. There wasn't a man at that place I couldn't keep in my dust whenever I desired." Then, after a sigh, "But it was only a fleeting show."

"And the ladies? Of course you enjoyed their company? You look the pink of a lady's man."

"Turned the heads of a good many. I could tell you the names of some who live in Philadelphia, two of whom live in the bright anticipation of being my wives. Alas for them—alas for me!"

"Did you have diamonds?"

"Yes, when at the Cape—got these, of course, as I got everything else, on tick. It would surprise you to know how easily I obtained money."

"To what do you attribute this facility?"

"To the fact that all believed me the son of a nobleman, and the son of a nobleman is just the person to turn the head of an American girl, as well as that of many an American shopkeeper who has in his mind's eye profitable patronage."

"You did not stand upon the order of your going when you left the resort?"

"Fortunately, no; because the fabric I had erected was just toppling. The crash came just as I decamped. I slipped up to Philadelphia in the right time, carrying with me considerable jewelry, some fine clothes, etc., and was compelled to keep very low, for if I hadn't, my Cape May creditors would have kept up a lively buzzing about my ears. I stayed here a short time, exhausting all my cash, and then I deemed it best to go to Europe. Being reduced pretty low, I took passage in the ship Elizabeth and Catherine, and actually worked my passage to Dunkirk, and proceeded thence to Paris, where I was compelled to sell the last relic of my former greatness, a fine solitaire diamond. This cost over $500, and I was compelled to sacrifice it for 280 francs. Even with this amount, setting a limit to my prodigality, which annoyed me, I lived as lavishly as possible, and then when the few days of princely living was ended. I departed from Paris as silently and hopelessly destitute as a pauper. I reached London at last, and there fell into a fat thing again—this fat thing being the Quaker Assembly. Having lived in Mr. Cope's family for almost a year, I could easily put on the airs and use the dialect of a Quaker. I found no difficulty in making the members believe that I was Mr. Cope's son, and they paid all my expenses—and I did not limit them—looking for their reimbursement when I returned to my pseudo-father's homestead."

He stopped suddenly and asked, "How did they find out that I was coming in this vessel?"

"It was cabled over."

"I know; but who in —— could have known it on this side of the water? I am sure they did not suspect it on the other side. Confound it, why did not I take any other vessel than this? Why did I not work my passage over in a ship? Fool that I was; why did I come at all?"

"You ought to have gone ashore at the breakwater."

He rubbed his hands, and walked nervously about, and then stopped. "So I would, so I would, if I had even suspected that an officer was waiting for me. But I did not, though common sense should have told me that I could not come here safely, after the course I had run."

Then came a pounding at the door. It was opened, and a steerage passenger came in, pointing at Massey, and saying, "Come, my boy. I want a word with you."

"Not now, not now," exclaimed Massey, in a whisper, to the officer, and the urgent passenger was walked out.

"I don't want to see him. He loaned me £11. The news of my arrest must be all through the ship by this time. Yes, there's the steward's voice. I owe him £1 and more, and there's that old fool sold me the linnet."

"What linnet?"

"A fine little bird I bought of him on an 'I. O. U.,' and gave it to the stewardess of the boat. Good heavens!" he exclaimed, "that such a scene as this should be the beginning of the end!"

"How was it you obtained such a credit on the boat?"

"They all believed that I was Frank Cope—Caleb Cope's son. They believed that I had a magnificent estate in Chester county, called Copeland, where one of the smallest items of wealth was 400 milking cows! I had invited them all to the Continental Hotel to partake of a grand banquet at any expense, the supper to be ready at six o'clock. Each man of whom I had borrowed was to find beneath his plate twice the sum in greenbacks I had borrowed of him. Alas! this delightful air-castle is knocked into a cocked hat! That infernal detective!"

"Would it have been so knocked if you had not been arrested?"

"I think it would;" he smiled as he said this.

"I intended to start to New York with the engineer as soon as the vessel reached the wharf."

While this conversation took place there was a buzz of discontented voices upon the other side of the door, and, whenever the latter was opened, the aperture was filled with frowning faces and glistening eyes. When the door closed again there came a timid knock. It was a young and pretty woman, Ellen ——, who had taken passage in the steerage. Her face was as white as snow, and in the centre of each cheek was a touch of carmine.

"Frank," she whispered.

"No, Ellen, I can't see you. Good bye!" and the door was closed upon her, too.

The young adventurer put his hand to his face and remained silent for some time. Then he simply said: "I promised to marry her. She was too good a girl for such a Cagliostro as I."

As the vessel neared the wharf he asked the detective where he was to be taken.

"To West Chester."

"The devil!" he responded. "Couldn't you take me somewhere else? There isn't a man or woman there who does not know me."

When he found there was no alternative, he said, in a whining voice, "The worst is come;" and then brightening up, "I've eaten the cake, and gorged myself with stolen sweets, but I can stand the pain. They will find that I can be brave under adversity."

When landed he was placed in a carriage and driven to the Central Station and thence to the West Chester depot. Arrived in West Chester, he was taken before a Justice of the Peace and committed in default of $2,000 bail, upon the charge of obtaining $30 under false pretenses. This is only one of a hundred charges that will pour in upon him.—Philadelphia Telegram.

The Denver News says that a large and commodious room, well lighted with gas, has been fitted up at the American House by Col. Jas. McNassar, which will be open during the entire session of the Legislature, free of charge, for the meeting of any and all the different societies of the Territory, without distinction of party.

OREGON.

The Supreme Court adjourned last Friday until to-day.

A company is organizing at Astoria to try the Stickeen mines in the spring.

James Fields, of Myrtle Creek, it is charged, "Credit-Mobiliered" one of his neighbors last week, and is now in jail.

The new woolen mill at Albany will probably be erected on the Willamette river, just below the Farmers' Warehouse.

The Christian Messenger, at Monmouth, Polk county, will resume publication in a few weeks, Rev. T. F. Campbell continuing as editor.

Rev. Thos. Condon will deliver his celebrated lecture, "Teeth and Claws and their seasons," on Wednesday evening, 21st inst., at the Congregational Church, in Forest Grove.

The Southern Methodists, of Corvallis, have leased the Evangelical Church, and now hold their regular services in it. It is likely this denomination will purchase the edifice.

Linn county has 125 persons and firms who pay over $100 each in county and State tax. Thirty three pay over $200, eleven over $300, and seven over $400. One man pays $559 70, and one firm pays $3,132 35.

A rousing temperance meeting was held at Forest Grove on the 14th inst. Resolutions were passed declaring the determination of the temperance people of this precinct to fight the whisky element to the bitter end.

The report from Linn county is: Business quiet; money not over plentiful; roads muddy; health fair, weather warm enough, but rather stormy; people happy and contented, with prospects of good crops to come.

One hundred and twenty-nine citizens of Eugene swore off drinking ardent spirits on New Year's day. One hundred and eighteen have gone back to their cups, and the other eleven are hanging on the verge and around the saloons.

The Plaindealer says: "The Editor-in-Chief is out collecting, which may account for the present bad weather. The Junior is in charge, this issue which will account for the present good paper. Whereat, our mourning is not without joy."

On Sunday afternoon of last week the rite of baptism by immersion was administered to eight persons uniting with the Baptist Church at the Dalles. The ceremony was performed by Elder Hill in the presence of a large gathering of spectators.

Several immigrants from Iowa were out in Washington county last week looking for homes. They got tired of the severe winters of the "States," and have come to Oregon where the plows run in the winter, and the farmers make a living easily.

The Trustees of the Odd Fellows Library Association at Salem, consisting of three members from each of the three Lodges in the city, effected an organization for the present year, by electing the following officers: President, T. M. Gatch; Vice President, Dr. H. Carpenter; Secretary, M. L. Chamberlain; Treasurer, B. F. Drake.

Everything in Polk county wears a bright look. The farmers are plowing and sowing fall grain, and great preparations are being made for next harvest. A large amount of new ground is being plowed, in some places tracts of from 50 to 200 acres. The fall grain looks well, and the farmers are hopeful of a good harvest next season.

The anniversary of the Lane county branch of the American Bible Society will be held at the Christian Church in Eugene Sunday evening, January 25th. Rev. H. B. Keniston, canvassing agent, will make his report of work done in that county. Rev. P. C. Hetzler, State agent, and others, will address the meeting. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

The following is a list of the officers of the Congregational Sunday-School at the Dalles elected for the ensuing year: Rev. W. R. Butcher, Superintendent; Mrs. J. G. Wilson, Assistant Superintendent; Edwin Pentland, Secretary; Henry L. Coffin, Librarian; Mrs. Z. F. Moody, Treasurer; Miss Lulu Donnell, Organist; Rev. W. R. Butcher, Musical Director.

The Albany Register says: "From present indications our mechanics will be crowded next season; in fact, will not be able to do but a moiety of the work in the way of erecting buildings here next season. A number of dwellings and business houses will go up as soon as the weather will permit and lumber can be obtained. It bids fair to be the busiest season for mechanics since the first settlement."

The gale was quite severe at Albany on 16th inst. The Register says a strong gust of wind came swooping down on Montgomery's livery stable, and took out the gable ends thereof slick and clean. A string of a hundred feet or more of picket fence, on Jos. Gray's property, on Front and Lyon streets, was blown down. A portion of a plank fence opposite the City Mills was made to lean towards the ground. Cloth shades were whipped into rags; windows were blown in and the panes smashed, and signs were blowned hither and yon. Quite a number of persons were seen chasing their hats, while one little fellow fell prone in the mud, by the violence of the gale.

The Linn County Medical Association met at the office of Dr. D. B. Rice, Albany, on January 3d, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. The following named gentlemen were elected as permanent officers of the Association: Dr. J. P. Tate, President; Dr J. Linsey Hill, Secretary; Drs. D. B. Rice and D. M. Jones, Censors. The President appointed the following named gentlemen as a Committee on Constitution and By-Laws, to be presented at the next meeting: Drs. Gamble, Rice and Hill. An invitation was extended to all regular physicians of the county to become members of the Association. After transacting other necessary business the Association adjourned to meet at the office of Dr. Rice, in Albany, on the first Monday in February, 1874, at 1 o'clock P. M.

Daniel Martin, of Dixie Precinct, Polk county, committed suicide on Wednesday under strange circumstances. He was about 33 years old, unmarried and lived with his father, Jacob Martin. He had been sick for a long time, his disease being a pulmonary one. His friends had thought that his reason was somewhat impaired, and suspected him of having some design of taking his own life, he had, therefore, been closely watched, though they humored him as much as possible in everything. On Wednesday he saw his sister have a box of pistol cartridges in her hand, which she was about to put in a place of safety, and asked her to let him see them. Wishing to humor what she supposed to be a mere whim, and considering the cartridges harmless in themselves, she gave them to him. After examining them for some time, he replaced them all (as his sister supposed) in the box and returned to her. After some time his brother came into the room, and the invalid said he wanted to look at his revolver. Not knowing of his having had the cartridges, his brother brought the revolver, and, after taking the precaution to draw the loads, gave it to him. He insisted upon keeping the pistol by him, saying that he wanted to look at it, until finally his brother went out of the room. No sooner was the sick man left alone than he fished two cartridges out of the bed, where he had managed to conceal them before returning the box to his sister, and, quickly slipping one of them into the chamber of the pistol, shot himself through the heart, expiring almost instantly.

BEECHER ON NEW YEAR'S DAY.—The apartment in which Mr. Beecher received his guests was beautifully decorated with rare paintings, entwined with evergreens. The visitors included many members of Rev. Dr. Buddington's church. Mr. Beecher remarked that in June last he was 61 years of age, and his life all through had been remarkable. In three or four years he believed he would be held in greater esteem by the masses. During the day over 800 people had called, and he felt wearied. It was pleasant, though, to him to receive the congratulations of so large a number of friends. The notice on the door was, "Welcome to all; come in—don't ring the bell."—New York Times, January 2d.

THE TERRITORIES.

The Utah Central's snow plow weighs 37,000 pounds.

The Denver banks have sold $24,000,000 in exchange during the past year.

Great interest is taken in the movement now on foot to secure a mint in Salt Lake.

Utah has shipped in the past year 16,000,000 pounds of crude bullion and 25,000,000 pounds of ore.

Gallatin City, Montana, is all under water, and for miles above, on either river, gondolas are necessary.

Two locomotives on the Northern Pacific Railroad are named after Captain Ainsworth and Judge Rice.

The population of Oneida county, Idaho, is put at 7,000, which would make it the most populous in the Territory.

The mining companies of Utah are lopping off the superfluous officials, and are coming down to bed rock and common sense.

Colorado has her penitentiary as full as it can hold, and the jails throughout the Territory are also full of criminals, waiting their turn in the penitentiary.

Colorado should be allowed to come in. The population is 100,800, and there are nearly as many gentlemen there who would like to go to the United States Senate.

The freemen of Utah, we are pleased to see, are refusing to pay poll tax. Voting for the church, and being compelled to pay a tax for that privilege, is playing out in Utah.

The Indian Commissioner has ordered that no more rations of corn be issued to the Apaches, because they use it to make an intoxicating liquor called "tiz-win," and get drunk on it.

Senator Ramsey's bill to organize the Territory of Pembina, proposes to divide Dakota on a line running east and west along the 46th parallel of north latitude, or about in the center of the Territory.

Captain James Lawson informs the Olympia Courier that his aneroid barometer indicated the extremely low position of 29 inches, on the morning of the 16th, the lowest he has ever seen in that latitude.

A Mrs. Pleasant, of Fort Laramie, has sued a paper for saying that she has murdered three husbands, when the fact is she hasn't murdered but two, the third one getting away with a broken rib. There is nothing like being accurate when dealing with such grave matters.

The Rocky Mountain News of the 2d says: "The most terrific storm for many years raged at Cimarron, New Mexico, Friday and Saturday. The coach going south on Friday, was blown over and one man had his arm broken, and Mrs. McElroy, wife of the signal officer at Cimarron, was dangerously wounded.

QUEER DUELS.—One of the queerest duels on record was that in which Sainte Beuve was engaged. It began to rain slightly after he had taken up his position, whereupon he coolly held his umbrella over his head with the left hand, while holding the pistol in his right. The expostulations of his witnesses had no effect upon him. "It is all very well to be killed," said the famous essayist, "but I object to catching cold in my head." There is a droll story about Perpignan, a literary Bohemian, having an encounter with Charles Maurice at five paces. The former having fired, and contrived to miss, the other, taking a deliberate aim, said to his antagonist: "Well, now, before I send you into the other world, tell me what you are thinking of." "I'm thinking that if I were in your place I would not fire," said Perpignan; and he owed his life to his presence of mind.

First Visitor—"What fine eyes little Victor has?" Second ditto (fond of quoting)—"Yes, he has 'an eye like Mars.'" Hostess (young, rich, beautiful and ignorant)—"Do you think so really? Now, I have always thought that he has his father's eyes."

MONDAY MORNING JANUARY 1[illegible] 1874

INFORMATION WANTED

The [illegible] Bulletin, edited by [illegible] [illegible] who [illegible] from the Federal Government at large [illegible] Collector of Customs [illegible] this port wants information as to the whereabouts and general condition of an association of professional gentlemen known as the Custom House ring. It has been believe such a ring is in existence but is just as much open to conviction [illegible] as when it was on trial in the United States District Court for bribery and repeating. We [illegible] to recommend to the Bulletin such information as lies within easy reach. As to the whereabouts of the ring part of it is in the penitentiary and the county jail but the greater part is unfortunately still at large. We hope the two ares will ultimately come together—that the latter may join the former. The condition of the ring is very much mixed. Some of its members want to kick Scott out of office others say, 'let us have peace,' knowing [illegible] that their chances for making a piece depend largely on preserving quiet. Others are dumbly acquiescent in all things—an attribute which renders them valuable as beasts of burden when campaign documents are to be circulated. Rumor has even gone so far as to hint, vaguely, of a dark compact between the packer and sampler and a sub assistant weigher and gauger, sealed in Custom House whisky smuggled into the port. They are looking for some one to bell the cat.

But the Bulletin questions the existence of such a ring and it says the assertion that it does exist 'will not bear a moment's examination.' If this remark had been made just after the October election, it might have been very generally credited. As it is, the masses of the Republican party have not forgotten that the Albany Convention was stocked by and with Federal officeholders, actual and expectant, and their immediate adherents, that these eminently impressible individuals were cajoled, flattered or frightened by our Senator without a character into the endorsement of his notorious and flagrant social crimes, nor have they forgotten the swift repudiation which followed this disgraceful betrayal of trust.

It is true, as the Bulletin suggests, that "all the forces the Custom House can command are but a petty fraction, hardly an eighth or a tenth of the Republicans of the State." At the last election, fifty-four per cent of the Republican voters of Oregon refused to go to the polls, and of the ostensible forty-six per cent which was represented, thirty went either under protest, from reverence for a formality, or from force of habit, ten were bought with gold wrung from Custom House salaries, from the Senator and other sources, five were inveigled into committing an "indiscretion," while fully one per cent we suppose, went from "pure cussedness."

If the Bulletin has noticed its Eastern exchanges during the past two or three months, it cannot have failed to observe the fact that the existence of such a ring as this of which we speak is recognized in the [illegible] The cause of the October defeat is well understood, and the responsibility is placed just where it belongs. The Springfield Republican, the New York Times, Tribune, and Evening Post, with many journals in the West and South, have attributed the disasters of the party to the very quarter from which it came. It is this very Custom House ring which has brought the Republicans of Oregon into disrepute in some places where these matters are not so well understood. It has afforded an excuse for sneers and gibes like the following, from a Sacramento paper, which, however unjust they may be, cannot fail of exerting some bad influence:

> The people of Oregon are very peculiar people. It appears to be their first concern to elect rascals to Congress, and their next to prove them to be rascals, and demand their expulsion from the body to which they were elected.

We suppose we might retort that California has sent several railway attorneys to Congress who have been denounced as "rascals" quite as frequently as our bigamous Senator has been. It was only the other day that the N Y Times contemptuously alluded, on its editorial page, to Senator Mitchipple's struggles for a name, quoting, at the same time, an article from the Portland News containing an account of the scene in Judge Bonham's court a few weeks since. And in another column of the OREGONIAN may be found a paragraph taken from the New York Herald.

We shall continue to denounce the Custom House ring until it dies—or repents. The force it musters is numerically small but its appliances are powerful in this county and one or two others. Its gold is its venom. If the good man of the house knows that a single poisonous reptile lurks in some dim corner ready at all times to fasten its fangs in the life blood of the unsuspecting, his fears may not be quieted by the suggestion that after all it is not so bad as it might be—there might be a dozen. If he be a prudent man he will not sleep until he has slain the enemy of his peace. The Custom House reptile is scotched not killed.

PLEASANT SENATORIAL GOSSIP

Senator Mitchipple has written another letter to the Portland Bulletin. It is an entertaining production, rather jocular and altogether like the author. He tells us

> You of the growing ambitious live West know what we want.

We know what he wanted in October and what he didn't get.

> You knew when you sent us such men as Attorney General Williams and our junior Senator from Portland.

We dislike to differ with the writer but in behalf of a large majority of the Republican party we would suggest that it is because we didn't know," that the junior Senator is in Washington to-day. But the author of this wordy letter cannot avoid the hypocrisy for which he is so notorious. He says

> So it is with Senator Mitchell as he stands in his high place in the eyes of the nation. His sorrows of the past have broadened him toward his fellow men.

Look we suppose it was while this broadening process was going on and before evolution was complete that the Senator caused the removal of Gov Gibbs for prosecuting the bribers and repeaters! And he couldn't have broadened to his entire satisfaction at the time he introduced the bill to appropriate $50,000 to buy up a lot of antiquated bill [illegible] and retorts and [illegible] [illegible] in this city [illegible] [illegible] Government Assay. It [illegible] this kind of broadening which fastened upon the Republican party the [illegible] of Gil Mulaney and [illegible] [illegible] individual development at the expense of the national treasury.

Further on in this letter the junior Senator says

> Of [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Congressional powers [illegible] possess, [illegible] [illegible] which drawn more [illegible] [illegible] than we are really aware of.

We suspect the junior Senator took the latter part of this from one of Maria P's love letters. As a drawist he is certainly a success—he drew Miss Brinker out to this coast and she had to draw herself back to the Atlantic States with infinite trouble and toil.

Finally the junior Senator tells us that 'in the Senate he wields an influence you may well be proud of, remembering the men of world wide fame and ripe experience he stands among!' Faugh! We imagine Sumner and Frelinghuysen and Edmunds, and all those patterns of the old-time Senator, draw the skirts of their togas more closely about them when the junior Senator passes by. The removal of the United States District Attorney for prosecuting the Portland corruptionists is a sample of the "influence" he "wields." It is of that character which is most dangerous to the life of the commonwealth, the cause of justice and the peace of all good men. It will be long before the people of Oregon can be proud of this humility which cloaks the worst social and political vices. The junior Senator is a veritable Uriah Heep—he is "very 'umble."

And the devil did grin for his darling sin
Is pride that apes humility

Mr Wm H Herndon, who obtained considerable notoriety one or two years ago as the author of a charge that Abraham Lincoln was an infidel etc is having a stormy time with newspapers in the West. For instance, a Springfield (Ill) dispatch of Dec 16th says

> Major J L Stuart, an old and intimate friend of Mr Lincoln, to-day received a letter from Mrs Lincoln, in which she emphatically and totally denies the fact of the conversation which Mr Herndon in his lecture claimed to have had with Mr Lincoln touching his early history etc. She says that no such conversation ever occurred.

Thomas Lewis, of St Louis, denounces Herndon in pointed language, in a letter to the St Louis Globe, from which we take the annexed excerpts

> In your issue of Sunday last you publish an erratic lecture by one Wm H Herndon of Springfield, Ill, in reference to the religious belief of Abraham Lincoln, in which my name is used most wantonly. Mr Herndon says that Mr Lincoln's feelings towards me were such that he would not have spoken to me concerning his religious views. The statement is not true.

Here follow letters from President Lincoln to Mr Lewis containing expressions of affection and assurances of high regard and confidence. Mr Lewis continues

> Many persons think it unaccountable why Mr Herndon should hound Mr Lincoln in his grave. But when it is once known that the habits of Mr Herndon prevented Mr Lincoln from giving him any office of honor or profit, Mr. Herndon's conduct though strange is not out of keeping with the man.

A communistic individual writes to the New York Times, over the signature "An Unemployed M D," saying that he is a graduate of the regular school, "has paid hundreds of dollars for his education has spent several years in public institutions giving his services to the sick poor gratuitously and has done many other things commendable and otherwise. He finds difficulty just now in supporting his growing family; the city owes him a living and he demands work; thinks medical and surgical cases will pay and must have bread or blood." His plan for getting one (or both) is very simple:

> A meeting must be called of all the unemployed doctors of the city and the Common Council required to furnish them cases of sickness with pay. Let the city be districted and the poor M D's be appointed to take charge of the sick poor in those districts the Common Council to foot the bills either so much a day or so much a case.

This unemployed professional young man thinks he is a skilled laborer and is as much entitled to have work created for him as the Irishmen on the boulevards. Why not?

The Philadelphia Inquirer, a journal of unquestioned Republicanism audaciously suggests that the vacuum in the national treasury is a result of prevailing theft and jobbery and it sharply says:

> Congress should proceed to inform Mr Richardson that the financial condition of the country is not precisely the sort that will bear more taxes, that it demands less rather than more and that Mr Richardson, instead of recommending to Congress an increase of excise should recommend to the heads of departments lessons in economy.

It occurs to us that suggestions of this kind are coming with a frequency and a vigor which commend them to the attention of the Administration at Washington.

If the OREGONIAN has not enforced its high opinion of the magnificence of the Bulletin's diction as it wished to it is because of the poverty of the English language. We spoke last Saturday of the grandeur of its Latin. We have found another gem which is (if we may be pardoned the unhandsome and not entirely original trope) like a jewel in a swine's snout:

> Wallowing in the mire of corruption gross as the sow [illegible] imperial augury in the ooze of Tyber with the prodigies of her fertility about her it affects nevertheless purity equal to unsunned snow and holds up its hands to call attention to the spotlessness of its garments. I [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

We might be justifiable in terming that "hog Latin" but we will forbear.

In the Washington correspondence (Dec 2[illegible]) of the New York Herald we find the following: Mr William Welsh of Philadelphia and Mr Benjamin Stark of New London, Conn formerly a Senator from Oregon members of the Board of Indian Missions of the Episcopal Church have been here the last two days in consultation with the Secretary of the Interior concerning the management of the Indian agencies and reservations which have been placed under the charge of the Episcopal Church.

By the deed of endowment of the school on Penikese Island Professor Agassiz had the right to select his successor to the office of resident and he chose his son Alexander Agassiz.

Rev Mr Sweetser of New York city preached recently on the theme "The Religion of Minding One's Business."

THE LATE OREGON ELECTION

In an article reviewing the political situation in the United States the New York Herald speaks of the attempt of party managers in California to gain control of the Republican organization and adds

> Something like a similar attempt was made in the adjoining State of Oregon soon after by the Federal office-holders in that part. The death of Mr Wilson [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Congress [illegible] [illegible] convention [illegible] [illegible] parties to [illegible] [illegible] candidates [illegible] [illegible] Senator [illegible] Mitchell insisted upon an endorsement from the Republican [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] of the delegates who could not entirely approve of the Senator's private [illegible]. Several [illegible] [illegible] followed [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Congress [illegible] Mitchell [illegible]. The Democratic candidate [illegible] [illegible] majority and the Republican candidate and platform including the whitewashing resolution concerning Mitchell were repudiated.

A LETTER FROM PRESIDENT GRANT.—A dispatch dated Washington Jan 12th says the following letter was sent that morning to Governor Davis by the President

> EXECUTIVE MANSION, Jan 12, 1874.
>
> To Governor Davis Austin Texas: Your dispatches and letters reciting the action of the Supreme Court of Texas declaring the late election unconstitutional, and asking for the use of troops to prevent apprehended violence is received. The call is not made in accordance with the Constitution of the United States and Acts of Congress under it and cannot therefore be granted. The Act of the Legislature of Texas providing for the recent elections having received your approval and both political parties having made nominations, and having conducted the political campaign under its provisions would it not be prudent as well as right to yield to the verdict of the people as expressed by their ballots?
>
> U S GRANT

SUMNER AND CUSHING.—A Washington dispatch of January 12th contains the following:

> In regard to Sumner's support of Cushing, the Chronicle says: "In all that has made Sumner's career a talisman Cushing has been his antipode. Sumner has ever been on the side of the oppressed groaning slave and Cushing as steadily on the side of the slave masters. Their clanking chains have filled the breast of Sumner with mortal anguish and wrung his heart with the deepest grief. To the ear of Cushing the ring of the slave's shackles only drew out that Roman virtue shadowed forth in the Dred Scott decision. Sumner's Civil Rights bill will be as worthless as blank paper unless its constitutionality shall be sustained by the Supreme Court of the United States and to sustain its validity Cushing would have to go back on the record of a somewhat protracted lifetime. Will Senator Sumner obliterate his glorious record by aiding to make Cushing Chief Justice?"

The evidence in the case of Antone Hunckler, on trial in San Francisco recently for the murder of his mother discloses horrid particulars. One of the witnesses testified that he "heard of the murder and went to see about it and found Hunckler sitting on the steps smoking a pipe. The door was open, and looking in I saw the mother's body lying across the bed. Hunckler said 'You are a Dutchman and a good fellow and you can come in, there is my mother dead.' I saw that it was so and that there was blood on the floor. I asked how it was and he said 'There is my mother she was a good mother, but she talked too much, and she is dead.'"

MADAME LUCCA'S DIVORCE CASE.—A New York dispatch of Dec 10th contains the following:

> Hon Edward Solomon ex Governor of Wisconsin appeared in the Supreme Court yesterday in behalf of Baron Van Rhaden of Berlin and made an argument on a motion preliminary to asking the Court to set aside a decree of divorce obtained by his wife, popularly known as Madame Pauline Lucca. The case is made complicate, owing to the fact that Madame Lucca was married to one Von Wolhoffen soon after she obtained a decree of divorce from Baron Rhaden. The Baron says he and his wife lived happily together until Von Wolhoffen who was wounded about the same time as himself in the French and Prussian war came to his home.

DEATH OF YOUNG AMERICUS THE BOY VIOLINIST.—A Boston dispatch of January 11th says

> Young Americus the young violinist who for several weeks has been playing in the "Naiad Queen," at the Boston Theater is dead. He retired Saturday night apparently in good health. Early in the night his father was awakened by the sound of the lad's voice and he says he distinguished after awakening some such words as these: "Merciful God make room for a little fellow." He supposed the lad was taken ill in his sleep. He spoke to him with the intention of rousing him but received no answer. Then he became alarmed and shouting, to the boy he discovered that he was dead.

A SAD INCIDENT OF THE WRECK.—A gentleman writing from England to Mr C C Waite who had a son (Charles) on the Ville du Havre relates this incident

> Charlie informs me he swam for a quarter of an hour during which time two of Mrs Spafford's children floated to him caught his pockets and thus held on till he got a plank. Then he took both in his arms and held them till they (the children) were exhausted and died.

MR. WILLIAMS' NEW HOUSE.—The Washington correspondent of the S. F. Bulletin writes of New Year's calls

> The Attorney General and Mrs Williams received calls in the fine mansion which they have just built and occupied on L street near Connecticut avenue. The drawing room of this house is the largest and perhaps the most elegant in Washington.

THE UTAH LEGISLATURE

A THOROUGHLY MORMON ORGANIZATION—GOV WOODS' MESSAGE

SALT LAKE, Jan. 12.—The Utah Legislature convened this afternoon and effected an organization by the election of Lorenzo Snow President of the Council and Orson Pratt Speaker of the House. Territorial Secretary Black administered the oath of office to the members and officers. The message of Gov Woods will probably be delivered to-morrow. It is unusually elaborate and interesting, and recommends as an imperative duty to remedy the evils of defective legislation in the Territory which has mainly caused the difficulties in enforcing the law. It has a strong appeal in favor of a free school system; urges that escheated estates now used for Mormon immigration be appropriated to the School Fund; calls attention to the fact that there is no criminal Code; says the Nauvoo legion has been a fruitful source of trouble [illegible] [illegible] existence and urges the passage of a law for militia organization, the legality of which cannot be questioned. It emphatically [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] earnestly asks for the secret ballot as the only safeguard to our liberties. It says there is now no law [illegible] the marriage ceremony and suggests that all the judges [illegible] [illegible] justices be authorized to act. It commends the establishment of a branch mint [illegible] a survey of the Territory and the election of the Probate Judges by the people.

A cross-eyed man [illegible] over a Detroit street car last Wednesday by asking one of seven men and strangers in the opposite seat if he had any chewing tobacco handy. First the seven [illegible] looked each other then the seven [illegible] pocket ward and observing [illegible] each of the seven supposed his neighbor the one spoken to and the seven [illegible] empty. The cross eyed man [illegible] glance of indignation along the line and [illegible] with the remark "A sweet secrete lot of generous roosters," took a chew of his own tobacco.

MAYOR SUED FOR LIBEL.—Col D R Anthony Mayor of Leavenworth has been sued for defamation of character by Judge Le Compte. The libel was printed in the Leavenworth Times of which Anthony is editor.

ONLY A RUMOR.—Madam Rumor that most officious as well as totally irresponsible of all imaginary female personages was industriously circulating false reports yesterday Everybody had heard of a case of suicide by stabbing drowning shooting hanging poisoning or some other agreeable mode of shuffling off this mortal coil, but could not straighten relate give name, date place or circumstances "I don't know haven't heard the particulars" was the only satisfaction our reporter could obtain after quizzing something less than fifty different persons about the affair For nearly two hours we waded through mud and breasted the pitiless storm hunting down that fugitive rumor but failed at length to track it to its lair. In no very [illegible] state of mind we started for the police headquarters but learned to our chagrin that they were as ignorant of the affair as ourselves. Wet wearied and disgusted we returned to the office and gave up the fruitless chase We do not wish to be understood that writing up a case of suicide would afford us any especial gratification even if news was scarce but we should be glad if the old Madam would start no more false rumors on such disagreeable divs

NEW MUSIC.—Mr T J Bentz of Gray's Music Store has laid on our table the following new music just issued "Danbury Waltz" dedicated to J M Bailey, Esq the celebrated Danbury writer by Jon Dinsmore "Polka Mazourka" by H Lichner "My Sammy" one of the Fly Sisters favorite songs, arranged by A W [illegible] "Sabre Song" from Grand Duchesse arranged for the piano by Carl Hess. All these musical gems can be obtained at Gray's Music Store Odd Fellows building

TRACK REPAIRED.—For some days the condition of the street railway track at the intersection of First and Stark streets has been such as to jeopardize in a measure the life and limb of those who chose that method of locomotion When the Stark street sewer was laid a tunnel was dug near the outer wall of the cistern The thin embankment between the cistern and tunnel proved insufficient to resist the pressure from the body of water and caved out This left a vacuum over which the track ran, and not being securely braced threatened to give away and let car horse and all down The dangerous condition of the street at that point was promptly reported by the Superintendent of Streets to the proper authorities and several carpenters were engaged in bracing up the track late on Saturday evening

LIGHTNING.—At an early hour yesterday morning the inhabitants of Portland enjoyed the luxury of a genuine old fashioned thunder storm Loud peals of thunder were heard about half past four o'clock which awoke many persons from their accustomed morning nap, and seemed to shake the firm foundation of the neighboring hills Persons who were up at that hour, inform us that the streets were almost light as day between the intervals of the thunder by the broad glare of sheet lightning The thunder and lightning soon passed away and was succeeded by a violent storm of rain the clouds letting down their 'garnered fullness' with a vengeance For the space of about two hours the rain descended in perfect torrents

GERMAN AID SOCIETY.—From the Deutsche Zeitung we learn the following items as regards the present condition of the German Aid Society, of this city The Society consists of 145 members, and is proposed, and the treasury has in cash $3,537 80 of which $2 056 belongs to the Hospital Fund, and $1,481 80 a Contingent Fund Besides the Association owns a piece of property in this city, which was inherited from a former German Association—the Harmony-Verein—as also a piece of property at Bellingham Bay, donated by Mr I I Rice. We consider this a very prosperous Association especially when we consider the short time of its organization Let us hope that this and all similar institutions may keep on prospering

PASSENGERS COMING.—The steamship Oriflamme, which sailed from San Francisco for Portland last Saturday, brings the following passengers Geo Hume Mrs Hume J Kaufman M Hecht, Wm Shyer and wife, N A Hirstel G B Cook, J M Reid R M Reid and family J T Dillerberg, Mrs M S Bigelow Mrs L Clendening and two children J R Dawson C Bowling J Long, A Kelly T McKinsy, W McKay, Mrs T Chartendge and child, F Nathan and two children B F Chilson J J Kenny Jos Roos, Rev A N Weyaxon W G Fowler J J Jacobs and wife L A Barley J Doyle and family A J Root and wife, A B Root

ENTERTAINMENT.—On Saturday evening Multnomah Lodge I O G T gave a social, musical and literary entertainment at Good Templars' Hall, Eatables were spread and a good time generally was experienced by the large number of persons present During the early part of the evening Mrs Duniway delivered a brief lecture From ten to twelve o'clock the floor was cleared, and those desirous of partaking participated in dancing The ushering in of the Sabbath day put an end to the pleasures of the evening

DOWN THE RIVER.—We learn that the bar was very rough last Friday, but became quite smooth again on Saturday The Idaho arrived at Astoria on Saturday but we are unable to state whether she crossed the bar or not. Just as the Dixie Thompson started for Portland the English bark Sultan started for sea What success attended the effort we are unadvised

WIND AND RAINFALL.—As will be seen by a glance at the weather report the rainfall of yesterday and the velocity of the wind exceeds by considerable that of any similar period since the establishment of the Signal Office in Portland The rainfall was 1 37 inches, and the wind was moving with the velocity of 31 miles per hour

MAN FOUND DEAD.

Early on Saturday morning the police were notified that a man named John Russell had died suddenly on board the steamer California during the night Soon after the body was conveyed to the undertakers and Coroner Dryer notified of the occurrence A jury was summoned and an inquest held over the remains Drs Kinney and Strong were summoned and at the request of the Coroner made a post mortem examination The liver was found to be black as coal with every indication of congestion The physicians were of the opinion that the man came to his death from congestion, induced by hard drink and exposure The jury—composed of the following persons Samuel Mills, Wm H Bennett J B Reynolds H Wilmer H Cooke and Frank Gatens—rendered a verdict in accordance with the above facts Russell was aged about 35 years, and had a wife, and some very respectable relations living at Sacramento He was a low, heavy built individual with black hair and eyes and a swarthy complexion He was very powerfully built, and seemed possessed of an iron constitution capable of enduring almost any degree of hardship Russell arrived on the last trip of the Idaho, with the intention, so he said of going to Nanaimo to work in the coal mines there He was a machinist and engineer by occupation but for some months previous to his arrival here he had been engaged as a collier at the Mount Diablo coal mines His intention was to work awhile at Nanaimo, and then make his way to the Stickeen mines in the spring When he reached here Russell was 'dead broke' and did not even have money with which to procure lodgings. Late on Friday evening in a conversation with two policemen Russell stated that he was going off to Nanaimo on the California when that steamer sailed and that he would go on board and sleep This he was known to do Not being able to obtain a berth he laid down on the floor of the kitchen, and went to sleep About 6 o'clock on Saturday morning one of the officers of the steamer found him lying near the doorway He appeared totally unconscious and the officer failing to arouse him, supposed he was beastly intoxicated Either he was dead at that time, or died soon after It was reported that he had died from suffocation, as the ship had been thoroughly fumigated on Thursday with coal and sulphur to destroy the rats Such, however could hardly be the case as the hatches were all closed down tightly Russell fell asleep up on the deck, with the doors of the kitchen partially open The mate and several other persons occupied berths adjoining where Russell slept and experienced no inconvenience from the smoke The remains were buried late on Saturday

BOARD OF DELEGATES

An adjourned meeting of the Board of Delegates of the Portland Fire Department was held last Saturday evening, at the Police Court room at 7:30 o'clock

The following members were present on the roll being called W H Andrus, J I [illegible] J I Dawson, A B Hall [illegible] Mayer C W Parrish I W Whalley W Young E Wicks E Holman J Morgan, W W [illegible] J P Wilcox [illegible] Sloan

The proceedings of the last regular meeting were read and approved

The monthly report of the Secretary of the Department was read and filed

From the report it appeared that the receipts during the month were $10

A communication was read from Protection No 4 showing the number of resignations and expulsions from that Company Communication ordered filed and the necessary entries of the same made on the register

The Committee on Judiciary reported on the matter of the decision of judges of the Chief Engineer election permitting resigned members of the Department to vote whose names were not on the returned roll of companies and duly sworn to and refusing to accept the vote of members whose names were on said certified roll that in their opinion the judges erred and recommending greater vigilance be exercised on the part of the officers of the Department as the best and safest means of preventing discrepancies in the rolls in the future On motion the report was adopted

On calling the roll, for the collection of fines several members were excused,

On motion, the Board proceeded to elect a Second Assistant of the P F D to fill the existing vacancy The President appointed Ed Wicks and J J Good tellers The names of J I Wilcox and Ed Campion were placed in nomination On the first ballot Campion received seven votes and Wilcox six The former gentleman having received the highest number of votes was declared duly elected

On motion the Secretary was instructed to draw a warrant on the Treasury for the amount of the bill for one hundred exempt firemen's badges, when received

On motion the Committee on Certificates were directed to telegraph Mr Nahl of San Francisco, to forward the exempt badges at once

On motion the Board adjourned

FASHION NOTES

A new Parisian wrap is a quilted sacque or basque of Lyons gros grain trimmed on the back and front seams and also on the sleeve with bands of Lyons velvet Around the bottom is rich Brussels fringe. Fashionables admit this to be one of the most elegant and stylish wraps introduced for a long time It is called the Patti sacque—after the prima donna it is to be presumed

Memorium cards are not yet used in this country, but in England it is customary to issue them in memory of a friend or relative about a week or ten days after the decease Those who receive them are at liberty to make a visit of condolence to the bereaved family They are of white Bristol-board with a black border and bear the words "In Memoriam" with the name of the deceased, his age the place and time of his death, the place of interment and the names of the survivors who issue the cards

Another late French encroachment says the Boston Gazette is in the shape of a feminine overcoat, having a basque back with rolling collar of velvet or silk and being made of warm diagonal cloth sloping away in true manly fashion over the hips, disclosing a legitimate waistcoat with good sized pockets inserted for change boot and glove hook and sundries. This is made of black drap d'ete, cashmere or velvet and can be worn with any style of waist coat or polonaise

AN AUDACIOUS ROBBERY

A DOZEN MASKED MEN SECURE THE SERVANTS, AND ROB A BANKER'S RESIDENCE ON STATEN ISLAND.

[From the N Y Herald Jan 1st]

A most desperate robbery took place on Tuesday night at West New Brighton S I in the house of Mr William K Soutter a banker doing business at No 43 William street, in this city The house is on the principal street of the village standing like most of the residences in that neighborhood some what distant from the road and from other houses Mr and Mrs Soutter had been for a few days away from home passing the holidays in the city leaving three female servants and Robert Armstrong a young man in charge while the coachman and a groom slept in the coach house some four rods distant Mr Soutter had been there during Tuesday but had returned to the city About nine o'clock in the evening while Armstrong and two of the servant maids were in the kitchen they were surprised by the sudden entrance of some eight or ten men armed and masked who seized them and with threats of instant death bound and gagged them placing handcuffs on Armstrong and tying the prisoners to heavy pieces of furniture The third maid who was asleep up stairs was also similarly secured Having thus precluded interruption or alarm the robbers stationed a guard outside and proceeded systematically to break open and rifle all the bureaus and closets, packing up all the valuables Failing in their efforts to open an iron safe which contained silver plate with the tools they had brought, they blew it up with powder and secured its contents, and after occupying some three hours in the robbery left the premises about midnight admonishing the servants to remain quiet This they were compelled to do until about 6 o'clock yesterday morning when Armstrong managed to get free from the chair to which he was bound and alarmed the groom and coachman who freed him from the handcuffs and gave notice to the police So far nothing is known as to the identity of the robbers The amount of the booty is said to be about $12 000

The retention of the same customers year after year is the highest commendation a business firm can receive It proves that those who know the house best and have most frequently tested its merits are its firmest friends This is true of BECK & WALDMAN where, in addition to hosts of new customers the faces of old friends are constantly to be seen The goods have been marked down as the firm wish to close out to make room for Spring Stock

DIDN'T MILK WELL

In the lower portion of the city resides a widow lady who is in straitened circumstances A day or two ago she had an attack of fever and ague and being done the circumstances were decidedly unpleasant A young lady friend hearing of her illness next morning [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] proceeded to the widow's residence where the young lady did her best to make the sick woman comfortable She started a fire and made arrangements for the preparation of a nice cup of tea The water being hot the tea was put to steep but just then the discovery was made that there was not any milk in the house The young lady was aware, however that the widow had four or five goats and from these she [illegible] [illegible] amount of milk. She did not know much about goats but thought it would be possible even for her to obtain a sufficient quantity of milk from one of them to suffice for the cup of tea the sick woman stood in need of Procuring a pail she went out into the yard where the goats were and found them all loose but one which was hitched to a fence Of course she directed her steps to this one as it might take some time to catch one of the others but it so happened that the animal tied up was not the one she should have chosen—in fact, it was a William goat When the amateur milker got within a few feet of William he showed symptoms of restlessness—lowering his head significantly and prancing about The young woman became frightened and went back into the house but the sight of the tea made her think it was too bad there was no milk for it, and she remarked to her masculine companion that she thought she could milk that goat if he would take hold of its horns and keep it still He consented and they sallied out He advanced promptly and caught the animal but as she was approaching with the tin pail the goat gave a bound which upset his captor and proceeded to butt and prance upon him vigorously doing his garments more hurt than a year's ordinary wear When the couple returned into the house and informed the widow of their ill luck it did her more good than all the tea obtainable especially when they happened to mention that the goat they had been operating upon was the one which was tied up —Sacramento Union

DEATH OF A NIECE OF GEN WARREN.—The Colusa Independent thus mentions the death of an old lady in that town who may be regarded as an historic character

Mary Stevens niece of General Warren who fell at Bunker Hill was born in Boston January 7th 1780, united in marriage to William Jones in 1870 soon after moved to Thomaston, Maine where she lived until 1810 when she came with her husband to Chillicothe Ohio She lost her husband by drowning in January 1828 She was married to S Hardy in 1832 and her second husband died in 1847 She soon after went to Washington city where she remained until her son William Cary Jones, came to California in 1849 (Many old Californians remember William Cary Jones as one of the greatest land lawyers in California at an early day —ED) Mrs Hardy lived in San Francisco until February 1872 when she came to Colusa where she died January 5th, 1874 being within two days of 84 years old She made a profession of religion and united with the church July 6th 1804 and continued a constant faithful member till death a period of nearly 70 years Death had no terror for her—she longed to go

To cure—take Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery earnestly to correct the blood and system which are always at fault also to act specifically as it does upon the diseased glands and lining membrane of the nose and its communicating chambers The more I see of this odious disease the more positive is my belief that if we would make treatment perfectly successful in curing it we must use constitutional treatment to act through the blood as well as a soothing and healing local application Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy when used warm and applied with Dr Pierce's Nasal Douche [illegible] upon common sense rational and scientific principles by its mild soothing and healing properties to which the disease gradually yields when the system has been put in perfect order by the use of the Golden Medical Discovery This is the only perfectly safe scientific and successful mode of acting upon and [illegible] it

Exchange on San Francisco at par

Wheat in Liverpool by mail advices from San Francisco—Average California, 12s 10d@11s 1d club, 14s 8d@1[illegible]s

We note no special features in the condition of our local money market which call for comment to-day. The first half of January has been quite as active in the general line of business as is usual for the period in the season. While investments have been quite large, there is still some improvement in the supply of available funds since the year began. The collections which are only made at the close of the year have been made with a fair degree of readiness and all things considered we have started on the business of the new year with favorable auspices. The greatest lack of funds during the coming season will probably be felt by those desiring accommodations for the purposes of local improvements. Money for that object could be readily placed here at fair rates.

In discussing the questions affecting the currency of the country now before Congress the New York Times furnishes some statistical information which is of general interest. An Eastern financier in order to show the necessity of more currency, sums up the enormous, almost incredible extent to which commodities are exchanged with the interposition of but a very insignificant amount of what is usually called money. He obtained from the officers of the Government and others very full information touching the amount of money received and the amount of transactions accomplished by a large number of banks in this country. These banks are divided into three groups. The first group contained the members of the clearing house association of New York City and the returns covered within a few days the entire existence of the association, at that time seventeen years or from the 11th of October 1853, to the 1st of October, 1870. During that time the exchanges effected amounted to 273 661 millions of dollars. The balances were but 11,207 millions of dollars. It will thus be seen that in effecting these exchanges but four per cent. of money was even nominally employed. In the second rank he placed for analysis the returns from thirty two city banks in the redemption cities of New York, Boston Cincinnati St. Louis Chicago and Cleveland. The returns embraced the entire receipts for the six business days of one week. The receipts were $154,969 685. Of this vast amount, equal to nearly one-half of the greenback issue of the country, and very nearly exactly equaling one half of the revenue of the national Government for one year only $18 770 708 was paid in cash. This is in the ratio of 12 1 10 per cent. It will be seen that these figures disclose the amount of cash used for the most part in commercial exchanges at points where the machinery of commerce is most complete.

The third group was so arranged that it should disclose the amount of money used in exchanges where there is undoubtedly the most used—i e nearest the class of agricultural producers. He therefore selected nineteen country banks distributed through sixteen States and Territories and the furthest removed from railroads and commercial centers. The aggregate receipts of this group of banks for six consecutive days—and for the same six days, we may remark, as those covered by the returns of the city banks—were $2,102 488. Of this sum $550 325 was in cash—the remainder in various forms of credit. The proportion is as 25 of money to 100 of receipts. The proportion for all the banks city and country, is as 1.5 in money to 100 of receipts. In all these cases there was included under the head of cash gold and gold coupons and all forms of paper money.

Eastern Wool Market.

From the commercial letter to the S. F. Chronicle dated the 12th inst. we learn that wool in the principal markets of the East had a favorable showing. Holders generally have conceded that the supply is light enough to be easily controlled. Manufacturing in are is deal sparingly but the purchases made are wholly inadequate and with increasing production it will be necessary for many of them to go into the market again soon for a fresh stock. There is a strong outlook for goods every way encouraging. Though trade has not opened very active, yet fleeces are being taken out to a fair extent at full rates. There is also a moderate inquiry for medium wools. Pacific coast wool continues in good request and is very firm with no excessive stock. There is very little foreign either here or in Boston, and holders remain firm in their views, although the demand is light. At Boston the market is quiet, and sales lighter than for several weeks. The tendency of prices is upward and some sales have been made at higher prices than those quoted. Telegraph advices from Melbourne announce that the Maggie Leslie has been withdrawn from the American charter and will go to London and only one vessel was loading for this market. It is probable that the export of wool to the United States will not exceed 10 000 bales. Sales of Pacific coast wool for the week 362,600 lbs at 23a23½ for spring, 38½ for pulled.

Miscellaneous.

The wholesale trade of Chicago during the year 1873 will compare favorably with that of any former year. The total amount of wholesale trade for the year is $330 000 000 being a gain of about 19 per cent on 1872, and of about 22 per cent. on 1870. The great increase in the year 1873 over that of 1872 was mainly due to the increased receipts of breadstuffs and live stock and in manufactures. The number of Hogs packed in the calendar year 1873 was in round numbers 2 000 000 against 1,200 000 the previous year.

The Corvallis Gazette of last Saturday says: Mr Jas F Hamilton yesterday morning distributed some hand bills signed by J D Biles announcing a reduction on freight tariff by the old line. All freights carried by actual weight—and charge the same both up and down the river. Freight from Corvallis to Portland $3 50 per ton.

The Corvallis Gazette of the 17th contains the following: The Wheat market in Corvallis still presents an anomalous appearance. Wheat in San Francisco on the 11th inst was quoted at $[illegible] a cental—with the bulk in hands of exporters. The prices at Liverpool remain at 12s 9d@13s 3d. There seems to be a growing opinion among the farmers of this vicinity that a "ring" is having something to do with their not receiving bids on their Wheat. Arrangements are now being made which if successful will secure large sales of Wheat in this place within a few days. If the farmers do not look out for their own interests no one else will. And they are now taking steps to do that thing. The price of Wheat in San Francisco keeps up despite the [illegible] about an advance in tonnage and there is no apparent reason why it should not in Oregon as there is no advance in tonnage between Portland and the Bay City.

We find the following in the New York Shipping [illegible] December [illegible]: The Barley crop this year is deficient, and largely below the wants of brewers. Several orders were some weeks ago sent to France but if we except one or two lots that cost $1 60 per bushel there they could not be filled within the limits. In this dilemma the brewers are substituting to a considerable extent Wheat Oats Molasses and Grape Sugar for Barley.

S G Reed & Co of Boston have purchased the ship Pride of the Port for $[illegible] and [illegible] her on the berth for San Francisco. There are [illegible] vessels clearing from Boston for that port in [illegible] year. Formerly there were from ten to fifteen per annum. A considerable portion of Boston merchandise for San Francisco is now sent to New York for reshipment. It is stated that the fine new ship Triumphant has been sold to Thayer & Lincoln of Boston for $[illegible]. This is one of the largest ships in the mercantile marine, being [illegible] tons with a carrying capacity of [illegible] centals Wheat. The vessel [illegible] New York for San Francisco [illegible] New York [illegible].

A telegram announces that the [illegible] will [illegible] of National banks [illegible] as National banks with their specie to reserve and circulation. The [illegible] just and [illegible] The country may furnish the Government [illegible] ample [illegible] with the [illegible].

That the country [illegible] abroad of all others in the matter of [illegible] will be seen in the following figures: United State $270 000 000; England $140,000 000; Germany $270 000 000; France $700 000 000; Austria $[illegible] 000 000; the rest of the world $[illegible].

The coinage of the San Francisco mint was larger in December last than any previous month since its establishment being $[illegible].

Marine Disaster.

The dispatches to day announce an accident to the ship Confidence off the east coast of South America. The Confidence left this port July 26,1873 with 11 269 centals of wheat valued at $24 450. We incline to the opinion that the telegraph is a mistake and that it should read from Portland for Liverpool, as the Confidence would hardly have had time to reach Europe discharge her cargo and return to Montevideo and the news to have come from that point here.

Shipping Intelligence.

The ship Chanaral to load with wheat for Europe, arrived in port this morning and lies at Flanders wharf ready to discharge ballast.

The Blenheim has a large part of her ballast out and will begin to take on grain the coming week.

The bark Rival, from San Francisco has arrived at Cook's Fishery, on the Columbia where she is discharging freight.

The Toftcombs and Fleur de Lis are about ready to drop down the river.

All the wheat vessels recently in our port except the above have cleared. The number of foreign bound grain carrying vessels clearing since January 1st being 10 and since August 1 1873 to date 53 against 1 vessel the first half of January 1873 and 11 from August 1 1872 to January 17 1873.

The steamship Oriflamme from San Francisco with passengers and freight for this port sailed to day.

The Powhattan and Eden for Queenstown—the former with 1,[illegible] and the latter with 27 000 centals of wheat—put to sea from Astoria on the 15th. The Wm H. Meyer and Free Trade sailed from the same place for San Francisco the same day.

MEDICAL.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES! NEW REMEDIES!

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, old Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearney street corner of Commercial, San Francisco where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time or money in seeking out new remedies and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. What parents guardians friends, at least to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR. GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case, without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing [illegible] diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence, is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz. Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to shun society, loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

Married Men,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DR. GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

Cured at Home.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Post-office or through Wells Fargo & Co a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union. All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who, with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial San Francisco. Postoffice Box 1 957. REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1,957 ON THE LETTER. Consultations FREE.

☞ Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the DAILY OREGONIAN. jy6dp
